Logos

You work for a company in its marketing department. It is your job to create a new company logo. You have heard that having a logo with symmetry is attractive to customers and useful for a company. You look through a page of company logos. Which of the logos below have rotational (ROT) symmetry? Which of the logos have reflectional (REF) symmetry? Illustrate all lines of symmetry (if any) in each logo below.

Create a new logo with rotational symmetry, reflectional symmetry, or both (circle one).
